Discussion about where the funds come from for the D-Cup bras

Thoughts a getting a “producer” for each d-cup bra

Eliminate the “a-la-carte” idea

Come up with the 4 C-cup themed bras

-Sports

-In the cup (beverage)

-Ad Bra

Come up with bras ideas and put together a pool of models, to assist in obtaining a larger sponsorship for those who are missing out

- a. Charity Discussion
 - a. Journey Program
 - i. Developing a retreat to develop an emotional support system for breast cancer patients
 - ii. They are 501-C3L
 - iii. Because Journey is not the type of charity organization that we can donate to (Stacey Isles is looking into this), we retain the funds to work with Journey program and perhaps other organizations to create a retreat for patients
 - iv. No other program is really offering the emotional support
 - b. Renae moves to defer charity discussion to March meeting – seconded by Jerry – passed unanimously
